

Abstract

The present invention relates to a process of treating a fabric comprising the steps of applying, in any order, to said fabric a first and a second composition, wherein upon contact of said two compositions heat is generated and whereby a fabric cleaning performance benefit is provided.

10

15 CM2381 US direct app.doc

T02030"663/260